FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SolomonEdwardsGroup Expands into Houston;
Gilbert Alba III and Pamela L. Mueller Open the Office

(Houston – April 24, 2007) SolomonEdwardsGroup, LLC (SEG), a national CFO services firm, has opened a new office in Houston, the firm’s seventh office nationally and second in Texas. Gilbert Alba III and Pamela L. Mueller have joined as practice manager and senior search consultant, respectively. Alba and Mueller bring a combined 25 years of sales and recruiting experience. At SEG, they will be responsible for sourcing and placing candidates in permanent positions, while working with companies on their professional search needs.

SEG has expanded from its corporate headquarters in Philadelphia, to Atlanta, Washington, D.C., Chicago, Roseland, N.J., Dallas/Fort Worth, and now Houston. The company’s strategic vision is to open offices across the United States to meet the growing needs of clients.

“Opening the office in Houston further solidifies our commitment to the state of Texas and we look forward becoming an integral part of Houston’s rapidly growing international business economy,” said Edward S. Baumstein, president and chief executive officer of SEG. “We’re delighted that Gilbert Alba and Pam Mueller have chosen to join us. Their knowledge of the marketplace and superior reputations have already gained us traction in the Houston market.”

Alba began his staffing career with Robert Half International where he led multiple markets in Texas including branch manager at the regional headquarters, manager of the Downtown Riverwalk branch, and division director. Alba then joined Roth Staffing Companies to launch their Houston accounting and financial division. Alba was most recently Houston market manager for RemX Financial Specialty Staffing, where he was responsible for operating its search and financial staffing business lines.
