SolomonEdwardsGroup Announces
Brian Markley Promoted To Lead Chicago Office
Markley, who previously served as a Principal of SEG, will continue to head the firm's national SEC and regulatory advisory practice

CHICAGO – March 27, 2007 - SolomonEdwardsGroup, LLC (SEG), a CFO services firm, is pleased to announce that Brian G. Markley, CPA, has been promoted to serve as managing director to lead the firm's Chicago office. In his new role, Markley will be responsible for the overall success and growth of SEG's Chicago office. This includes the office's business consulting and accounting services along with its professional search and interim resources practice. SEG, which currently operates out of six offices with over 250 employees and growing, opened its Chicago office in June of 2005.

Markley joined SEG in 2002 and most recently served as a principal in the firm's Philadelphia office. He has focused on providing clients with consultation on regulatory compliance matters including SEC and US GAAP technical advisory, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and mergers and acquisitions. In addition to leading the firm's Chicago practices, Markley will also continue to head the firm's national SEC & regulatory advisory practice and serve a diverse multinational client base representing a broad range of industry sectors.

"Brian's advancement to lead our Chicago office is a natural progression in his career at SolomonEdwardsGroup," stated Edward S. Baumstein, CPA, president and chief executive officer of SEG. "He has been a member of our leadership team for more than five years and, throughout this time, has demonstrated his passion and commitment to our company, our clients and our candidates, time and time again,"

"I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the growth and success of our firm" stated Brian G. Markley, managing director of SEG's Chicago office. "We've built a very unique suite of solutions for finance professionals and the organizations in which they work. It is a distinct honor to serve our firm by expanding our presence in the Chicago market."
