Jack Causa Joins SolomonEdwardsGroup as Partner of the Washington, D.C. Capital Region

(Washington, D.C. – February 17, 2010) SolomonEdwardsGroup, LLC (SEG), a national CFO services firm, is pleased to announce that Jack Causa, CPA, has joined the firm as Partner of the Washington D.C. Capital Region office. Causa, who has a wealth of experience in professional services, recruitment and staffing, will oversee client service, operations, growth, and business development.

With over 30 years of experience, Jack brings an executive level perspective to the CFO organization that will help businesses manage their accounting and finance departments and their resources effectively. Prior to joining SEG, Causa held a number of executive level positions in sales, management, operations and finance that has transformed organizations. These transformations included an IPO, acquisition integration, streamlining business processes, developing productivity models that improved sales and profits, sustaining growth in a down economy and producing explosive revenue growth. Positions included Senior Vice President – Group Executive; Partner; Managing Director; President - Finance and Accounting; Vice President Operations; Director – Financial Services and Manager Internal Audit for a consumer products/pharmaceutical company. Causa gained his initial experience with Price Waterhouse (now PricewaterhouseCoopers).

“Jack has led high performance professional service teams in all areas of recruitment and business development. He will help SEG drive strategic initiatives with effective and strategic business development tactics said Ed Baumstein, SEG president and chief executive officer. I look forward to him being an integral part of our evolution here at SEG and know he’ll have a tremendous impact along our journey.”
