

Houston Business Journal - April 24, 2007
http://houston.bizjournals.com/houston/stories/2007/04/23/daily24.html

HOUSTON BUSINESS JOURNAL

BUSINESS PULSE SURVEY: What should be done with the Eighth Wonder of the World?

SolomonEdwardsGroup enters Houston market

Houston Business Journal - 11:42 AM CDT Tuesday, April 24, 2007
SolomonEdwardsGroup LLC has opened a Houston office.

The Houston office is the second in Texas for SolomonEdwardsGroup, a national chief financial officer services firm, which also has a presence in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Gilbert Alba III and Pamela Mueller have joined as practice manager and senior search consultant, respectively, to lead the new office, located at 2425 West Loop South, Suite 200, near the Galleria.

At SEG, they will be responsible for sourcing and placing candidates in permanent positions, while working with companies on their professional search needs.

Philadelphia-based SEG also has offices in Atlanta, Washington, D.C., Chicago and Roseland, N.J.

Contact the Editor | Need Assistance? | More Latest News →

Subscribe or renew online

All contents of this site © American City Business Journals Inc. All rights reserved.